

WHEREAS, the growth and development of children prenatal to five years of age is the foundation upon which further development, education and socialization depend; and

WHEREAS, the families raising these children are critically important to the successful growth and development of their children; and

WHEREAS, most families need support services from time to time, but often lack the information necessary to find helpful resources; and

WHEREAS, funding from FIRST 5 Santa Clara County has enabled collaboration between the City of Mountain View, Parents Place, City of Palo Alto's Family Resources, and Palo Alto Community Child Care, forming the Mountain View Family Ambassador Program to provide resource information and connections to families in Mountain View; and

WHEREAS, the individuals in the Mountain View Family Ambassador Program have been outstanding participants, enabling them to provide resource information and connections to members of their community;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara, State of California does hereby honor and commend for their participation in the program, and service in their community promoting the importance of the first five years of a child's life and linking families to their local resources.

PASSED AND ADOPTED this Twenty-Second Day of May, Two Thousand and Seven by unanimous vote.
