

WHEREAS, Palo Alto Children’s Theatre is celebrating its seventy-fifth year of bringing international, national and statewide recognition to the County of Santa Clara and the City of Palo Alto through its unique programs in theatre by and for young people; and

WHEREAS, Palo Alto Children’s Theatre has served both as a model and inspiration to communities in Santa Clara County to provide theatre services to young people and to develop public/private partnerships to enhance facilities and programs in a cost-effective way with city governments; and

WHEREAS, Palo Alto Children’s Theatre promotes the well being and celebrates the joy of youth through the exploration of the theatre arts through teaching all areas of performing arts skills, both on stage and back stage, through productions, classes, and workshops to young people; and

WHEREAS, Palo Alto Children’s Theatre fosters a sense of wider community through its participation in leadership training for children, teenagers, and young adults through various formal and informal programs which relate to community service projects, fostering community building across generational lines; and

WHEREAS, Palo Alto Children’s Theatre encourages and teaches individual and group innovation and creativity for life-long use and endeavors to promote a life-long love of theatre and other arts;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara does hereby honor and commend for its seventy-five years of providing joy and well-being to the young people of Palo Alto, encouraging them to appreciate the many facets of theatre.
