

WHEREAS, Jean and Barbara Mordo consider helping others a way of life. Both separately and in tandem, the Mordos volunteer and provide leadership at organizations as diverse as the Los Altos History Museum, the local library, the community theater and the Day Worker Center of Mountain View; it is not only the time they both contribute, but the graciousness with which their volunteer services are offered; and

WHEREAS, Jean Mordo was born in Egypt, leaving with his family for France at age 11; he ultimately served in the French military and earned a masters degree in engineering at the prestigious Ecole Polytechnique in Paris. He attended business school at Stanford University, earning a master's degree in business administration in 1972; and

WHEREAS, Barbara Mordo was born in New York and attended Baldwin Wallace College in Berea, Ohio, continued her education earning a masters degree in child psychology from the University of Connecticut and skillfully taught kindergarten for 27 years; and

WHEREAS, Jean and Barbara Mordo's ubiquitous presence undeniably supports the greater community and has earned them appreciation and praise from the community at large as well as recognition for their commendable efforts and accomplishments from the Los Altos Town Crier as 2009 Los Altans of the year;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara, State of California does hereby honor and commend for their good will and significant enhancement to Los Altos and Los Altos Hills by being active, energetic leaders, and enhancing and uniting communities.

Jean and Barbara Mordo

PASSED AND ADOPTED this Twenty-Sixth Day of January, Two Thousand Ten by unanimous vote.

Ken Yeager
President, Board of Supervisors

Donald F. Gage
Supervisor, District One

George M. Shirakawa
Supervisor, District Two

Dave Cortese
Supervisor, District Three

Liz Kniss
Supervisor, District Five

Attest: Maria Marinos
Clerk, Board of Supervisors